Truck Driver's Death Is Held Unavoidable

Taxi Man Exonerated in Collision at Ninth and M Streets

Fatal to Charles Wright

A coroner's jury yesterday found a verdict of accidental death in the case of Charles Wright, 49, who was killed Saturday when the truck he was operating overturned at Ninth and M streets and pinned him beneath it following a collision with a taxicab.

The verdict absolves the cab driver, George Howard Brown, 27, of Greater Capitol Heights, Md., who was arrested and held on $2000 bond for the inquest after the accident. The taxicab was moving north on Ninth street and the truck east on M street. Wright, who lived at 825 Fifth street northeast, was crushed to death.
