

William Boyd:

“Dr. W. Boyd – Another Osawatomie Brown on a Small Scale,” The Evening Star, November 10, 1858, p. 3.

“Dr. Wm. Boyd,” The Evening Star, November 15, 1858, p. 3.

“The Case of Boyd,” The Evening Star, November 19, 1858, p. 3.

“Dr. Boyd, The Slave Abductor,” The Evening Star, November 21, 1858, p. 3.

“Honorably Dismissed,” The Evening Star, November 22, 1858, p. 3.

“Today – Wm. Boyd,” The Evening Star, January 13, 1859, p. 3.

“Criminal Court – Dr. Boyd,” The Evening Star, January 14, 1859, p. 3.

“Criminal Court,” The Evening Star, January 16, 1859, p. 3.

“Criminal Court,” The Evening Star, February 4, 1859, p. 3.

“Criminal Court,” The Evening Star, February 6, 1859, p. 3.

“Criminal Court,” The Evening Star, February 7, 1859, p. 3.

“Desperate Riot. Brutal Assault upon Negroes by Soldiers!! Houses Quitted and Property Destroyed!! Dr. Wm. Boyd Assailed and Terribly Injured by the Rioters!!,” The Evening Star, June 10, 1865.

“The Riot on Saturday,” The Evening Star, June 12, 1865.

“Death of an Anti-Slavery Crusader. Wm. Boyd, Former Abolitionist and Worker of the Underground Railroad, Dead,” The Evening Star, February 14, 1884.

Centennial Celebration of the Establishment of the Seat of Government in the District of Columbia, 1800-1900, comp. William V. Cox. Washington: Government Printing Office, 1901, p. 314-315.

Copies of Presidential Pardons and Remissions. Record Group 59, General Records of the Dept. of State, Microfilm T967, p. 265-266.

Criminal Trial Dockets 1838-63. Record Group 21, Entry 42, Volume: December Term 1859, Presentments 180, 185, 192.